

JOE BUSH, STATE WITNESS IN TRIAL OF LEWIS BOLTON

Tells of His Part in Taking Etherington from Jail and Hanging Him To Pole

IMPLICATES NUMBER OF OTHERS IN THE CRIME

Does Not Directly Accuse Bolton of Being Implicated Further Than That He Lent Encouragement--Bush's Testimony Weakened by Cross-Examination of Defense.

STATE CLOSES ITS CASE.

The state rested its case at 2:35 this afternoon and the last witness called was Clerk E. M. Larason, who was not present. The defense admitted what the state wanted to prove by him, namely that Mr. Fitzgibbon was the attorney of record for Joe Bush.

The defense made a motion to take the case from the jury and direct a verdict of "not guilty," but this was overruled.

Mt. Vernon, April 19.—"What will Joe Bush say? Has the prosecution something up its sleeve in the testimony which it is expected he will give that will connect Lewis Bolton with the crime of Etherington's murder?" were the two questions uppermost in the minds of everyone connected in any way with the trial now in progress here, and they were voiced from the time of adjournment Tuesday evening until the opening session this morning by many who could not see in what way the state had made out its case against the accused, when Prosecutor Smythe stated to Judge Wickham Tuesday afternoon that the prosecution would close its case by noon today.

It was the general impression among not only the casual observers of the proceedings, but also of the lawyers of the Mt. Vernon bar, who have watched the trend of events that on Wednesday morning when court opened, the case presented by the state was not of sufficient strength to warrant its being submitted to the jury, and it seemed that the case, if made out at all, must be supported by the testimony of Joe Bush, the prisoner in the Licking county jail, who is under indictment for murder in the first degree in connection with the same crime as Bolton, and whose name has been frequently mentioned in the testimony in previous cases and in the opening statement to the jury by Prosecutor Smythe in the present prosecution.

This feeling of curiosity was intensified to one of concern to the counsel for the defense, as was evidenced by the attorneys being in close and earnest conference at the table, immediately upon the arrival of Mr. Fitzgibbon at 8:40 a.m. until Bailiff Patrick Purcell opened court.

The defendant was confident of Tuesday evening and did not appear particularly worried this morning yet he was evidently laboring under more of a strain than has been apparent heretofore. He came into the court room earlier than usual, and immediately took his seat with his counsel, listening with great interest to everything said in the preparation of his plan of defense against the unknown, and frequently consulted with them.

Bush was brought to Mt. Vernon by Sheriff F. E. Slabaugh and upon alighting at the station he was the focal point of all eyes. He was put into a cab and taken to the court room in company with a Miss Rife, the Newark woman with whom he has been keeping company, and who is subpoenaed by the state.

Bush and Bolton never exchanged glances nor words as they passed each other, nor while sitting in the court room. Bush behind the presiding table, and Bolton across the back space with his attorneys.

Either Sheriff Slabaugh or Captain Swank of the Newark police force sat in the chair next to him at all times but he was not manacled. Most of the time he sat between these two officers.

The attendance at the trial is increasing somewhat, but the interest has not been such as to attract large crowds. Morbid curiosity among young women is, as usual in murder cases, apparent, and on the pavement across from the jail can be seen hordes of school girls and young women craning their necks to get a glimpse

HOW THE MOST MAGNIFICENT CATHEDRAL IN THE WORLD WILL LOOK ON COMPLETION

The magnificent new cathedral of St. John the Divine will be dedicated here in the clerical dignitaries of this country and abroad, and of many prominent Americans, including the President.

Aside from the impressive architectural beauty of the cathedral, it has been so built to defy the efforts of time to deface or destroy it. In this latter respect, it will pass all other structures erected by man.

live at present in the county jail, before this I boarded with a lady named Rife; she is unmarried; keeps a sort of boarding house; I have known Miss Rife for about three years; have not lived with my wife for three years; no one else boarded at Miss Rife's except me; about three months ago I met Mr. W. H. Miller; I sent for him and was taken up to the court house to meet him; talked over the story with him that I have told now; I testified before the last grand jury; my case has not yet been set for trial; Miller never told me that I would not be prosecuted if I gave this testimony against Bolton; the state never gave me any promise; Miss Rife never told me and urged me to tell this story and she would fix it with Miller; I sent her to see Miller; I might have expected something, but I don't know if I will get anything; I did expect something from it, but Miller never promised me anything; I told him I would tell the truth.

"Did you just take a chance that the state of Ohio would have mercy on you if you came up here and testified that you helped to murder this man Etherington in order to convict Bolton?"

"I expected to escape the chair."

"At the time I sent for Miller I knew that Sanford Henry had been released; never said to Henry when he came back to the jail: 'You sent me to see you; you have given me some one the double cross and you are trying to give it to Bolton, when you know he didn't have anything to do with it. Had trouble with Sanford Henry but don't remember trying to attack him with a razor nor Ed Schoeller taking the razor away from me."

"That afternoon I heard Uly Criss say that Howard had been shot and that the patrol was bringing the dry detective; I walked from the saloon up to Emerson's corner, got on the patrol wagon and went down to the jail."

"Know Tom Foss, the automobile dealer; I met him that afternoon and he gave me some bushings for the taxicab; didn't tell him that I would not put the bushings on, that the taxicab might go to hell first; there was too much excitement in town, was with Tom Foss for some time that afternoon; was with Edgar Owens that afternoon about 20 minutes driving about; was in Jack Wells' saloon with him; took a glass of beer, and left with Bert Jordan; saloon that afternoon; don't remember now many times; went up to Miller's place that evening in a taxicab; took Mrs. Howard home from the Sanitarium in the afternoon in the taxicab; that is the only ride I took in the afternoon that I remember."

"I know New Andrews, had a talk with him in the county jail but don't remember saying to him that I was going to testify in the Bolton case and that I would never be tried."

"Talked with Frank Woodard, a plumber who was fixing a bath tub in the county jail, but didn't say to him that if I had taken Bolton's advice I would never have gotten in there."

Witness was handed a paper dated August 15, 1919, which Bush acknowledged he had signed.

"I had a talk with Fitzgibbon, do not remember that; Fitzgibbon said anything to me about a rumor that I had some checks in my possession signed by Bolton; I never had any checks of the kind."

"Don't remember saying to Fitzgibbon that Bolton had nothing to do with my connection with the lynching, and that he couldn't make an affidavit to that effect too strong for me to sign. I did sign a paper handed me by Fitzgibbon."

This paper was read and introduced in evidence. It was an affidavit to the effect that Bolton had never talked to him about nor advised him to do any violence to Carl Etherington or any other dry detective.

QUESTION OF PIECE WORK ADJUSTED BETWEEN EMPLOYEES AND THE B. & O. OFFICIALS

As is generally known the piece work question has for a long time been a vexed one between the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company and the machinists employed by the company at this point. Time and time again efforts have been made to bring about a settlement of the question that would be entirely satisfactory to all parties concerned, but not until Tuesday was this accomplished.

Tuesday representatives of both sides got together, and after going over the matter, an agreement was arrived at and the matter adjusted to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, especially the officers at this point, and the machinists are to be congratulated on the happy outcome of this matter which for so long a time has had the effect of causing strained relations between the parties. Talking about the location of the mammoth Baltimore and Ohio shops in Newark, this move on the part of the company and the machinists will be of the greatest benefit to Newark. Amicable relations between the company and its employees is one of the greatest considerations demanded, and when that exists half the battle is won.

Witness said he knew Quincey Suter, and was part of the time in the same cell with him. He identified the handwriting on a note handed to him as his own, which note was to Quincey Suter.

I wrote to Miss Rife to see Miller and tell him that I wanted to see him. When I wrote the note to Suter I expected to see Miller that night.

The note was read and was substantially as follows: "I tell you, Suter, sucker, aren't doing us any good and you can't tell how long we have to be here, and I am going to get out, and I am going to see a man tonight."

Continuing, Bush said: "I had sent Miss Rife to see Miller and had talked with her about it, but she didn't assure me that I would get out if I told the story."

Bush withstood the cross-examination of Attorney Owen, which had a tendency to weaken his position, as it showed a motive in testifying as he had.

S. B. Fritzsche recalled by Mr. Smythe, "When we were in the saloon I heard some one say: 'We are going to give that fellow a party tonight, room was crowded with men drinking and drinking money and don't remember the case register."

Cross-examined by Fitzgibbon, witness said the saloon about six minutes, couldn't get out, the cash register might have been going, my attention was not called to it."

Clifford Frye, told by National Bank, examined by Miller, was:

When down in the mouth, think of Jonah. He came out all right.

FACTIONS CLASH AT ZION CITY

Zion City, April 19.—Following yesterday's riotous election a bitter fight is in sight. The Voliva factions will be charged with every election crime in the book, and they in turn are going to prosecute anti-Voliva election officials for assault, fraud and a few other things. The first count showed an anti-Voliva victory, but a recount showed the reverse, indicating that the city of the peaceful can show some very practical politics.

BIG CROWD AT MARATHON

Boston, Mass., April 19.—A quarter of a million of people are lined along the route of the fifteenth annual Boston Athletic Association Marathon race between the B. B. A. club house and Ashland, a distance of 25 miles. One hundred and forty-one contestants started at noon. At the five mile post Alexie Ahlgren, New York, led, time 22 min. 30 sec; Frank Masterson of New York, second and F. J. Madden, Boston, third. They passed the twelve mile post in the same order in 1 hour 2 min. 15 sec.

Charles H. Demar of North Dorchester, won in 2 hours, 21 minutes 35 3/5 seconds; J. S. Madden was second, in 2 hours, 24 minutes, 31 seconds, and F. Fadore Montreal 2 hours 29 minutes and 22 1/5 seconds. The crowd went wild over the victory of the local man.

SPEAKER VINING BREAKS DOWN AND GOES TO HOSPITAL

Columbus, April 19.—Speaker of the House S. J. Vining of Mercer county, was last night taken to a local hospital under orders of his physician. Vining has suffered a complete physical breakdown, caused by overwork. Although he is very ill his condition today was reported as not serious.

The strenuous fight the Speaker made for the uniform school book bill has endeared him to the great mass of the people of the state, regardless of party affiliations.

REDISTRICTING BILL

Sent Out from Washington. Repudiated by Ohio House Committee.

Columbus, April 19.—Not only was the tentative redistricting bill for congressmen sent out from Washington not endorsed by the members of the committee on federal relations of the house of representatives yesterday, but it was flatly repudiated.

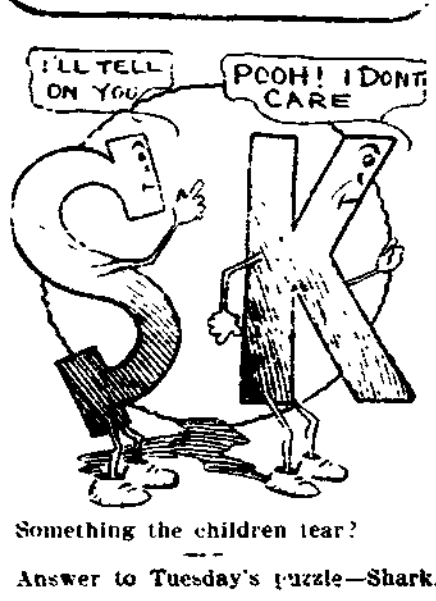

The committee held a meeting last night at which a motion was unanimously adopted instructing Chairman William D. Fulton, of Licking to prepare and introduce a bill providing for 21 districts. Mr. Fulton has been at work upon a measure and expects to have it ready for introduction before the close of the week's session. It will be read twice and then referred back to the committee to be whipped into shape for final passage.

This move is necessary because of the approach of the time for adjournment. This does not mean that Mr. Fulton's bill will be the one which will be passed, but simply that action must be taken. Interested members of both branches of the assembly have begun to growl and object to the part being taken by the sitting congressmen, whom they accuse of attempting to dictate a germyrander most suitable to their interests.

According to Vice Consul General Lyon Chandler at Buenos Ayres, that place, the fourth American city, offers more real trade opportunities than Shanghai, Canton and Yokohama combined.

Exports from the United States to Japan were 50 per cent less in 1905 than in 1905, and exports to China 65 per cent less. Those to Argentina were, on the other hand, 13 per cent greater.

WHAT IS IT?

PEACE IS IN SIGHT FOR MEXICO

Negotiations Pending for Settlement of Trouble.

PRES. DIAZ MUST RESIGN

Robels Compelled to Evacuate Agua Prieta and Suffer Worst Blow of War.

Mexico City, April 19.—Because the Diaz administration and the Madero faction are thought to be in touch on proposals for peace the immediate necessity for congressional action has disappeared. The bill authorizing a new general election will not be pushed until it can be seen the peace overtures will end.

Foreign Minister De La Bara and Doctor Gomez are handling the negotiations for the government and the rebels respectively. De La Bara seems confident of success today and meanwhile is preparing to protect all foreigners while the negotiations are pending.

Insiders say the agreement will probably include the resignation of Diaz within six months, the provisional presidency of De La Bara and a revision of the election laws giving the people real power.

Washington, April 19.—Positive and unqualified denial that any new peace terms had been offered by the insurgents to the Diaz government was made today by Dr. Gomez here. He says if the news dispatches from Mexico City are true and the reported peace movement there is a fact it is simply indication that Diaz has decided to accept the original proposals of the rebels. He said: "There has been no offer of compromise. There will be no settlement except on the retirement of Diaz or the absolute promise that he will retire within a specified time and the establishment of the reforms we demand."

Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico, April 19.—When darkness fell over Agua Prieta last night it was undetermined whether the Federal troops of Lieutenant Colonel Diaz would retain undisputed possession of the city or whether rebel re-enforcements, appearing suddenly from the westward this afternoon, would precipitate another battle.

Watchers were surprised after a day of quietude to see a column of troops move out of the mountain passes 12 miles to the west of Agua Prieta and debouch upon the plains in front of the city. It was at first uncertain whether this was a new rebel force or Federal re-enforcements coming from Cananea.

The doubt was soon dispelled. The column began its march directly toward the city.

The men were mounted and were riding rapidly. Soon it was made out with the aid of glasses that it was a force of insurgents. As they approached the outer breastworks of the city the

FORTY-SEVEN MEN OR FIRMS HAVE CONTRIBUTED

City and County Asked to Help in the Proposed Improvement of Public Parks.

Forty-seven firms and individuals have subscribed to the court house improvement fund, the subscription closing on Wednesday morning, according to $500. At least 100 more subscriptions should be received in order to do the work properly.

Very little planning has been done in nearly all of the contributions being voluntary. So far as known only two men have refused to make a contribution to this fund, practically everybody agreeing that Newark's court house should be made more attractive. The only trouble is that the subscriptions are not coming in fast enough in order to plan the work, the Board of Trade wants to show how much money it will have to spend.

There will be no flower beds placed on the park of a certain amount of money will be placed in the hands of the city and county, trees planted and better lighting established. The members of the city council and Service Director, Chairman are in favor of having the city care for the trees and a resolution to that effect is now in the hands of a committee, which will report at the next meeting. The Licking county commissioners, Messrs. Tatham, Brownfield and Tawner, have expressed a willingness to co-operate in improving the court house lighting. If the city and county will provide part of the funds, the amount subscribed by the citizens will be devoted to the other improvements here noted.

An expert will give a plan for the work, so that the improvement can be made properly and no money wasted on work that will not give the desired effect.

Here are the 47 subscribers to date. Others are invited to send their contributions to the Newark Board of Trade:

Fifty-dollar Subscriptions—George B. Sprague, A. R. Lindorf, John J. Carroll, Scott-Griggs Co., Henry S. Fies, A. Friend.

Thirty-dollar Subscriptions—Jas. E. Thomas.

CARY MONTGOMERY WRITES OF FRUIT CULTURE IN OHIO

Editor Advocate:—Last week and week before I worked in Northern Ohio and the contrast between the fruit buds there and in Licking county was quite marked, that is the buds were more dormant than with us. This week I am working along the Ohio river in southern Ohio, and the contrast is the other way. Peach trees and Japan plum are in full bloom. Peaches are not as badly killed as at first reported and some trees are practically unhurt. The late varieties and trees not in good vigorous condition are the ones badly hurt.

I notice at my place young trees that were not in full bearing last year and some old trees that I had cut the tops all out of so that they would grow a new top, are full of unhurt buds, while the same variety on old trees that were heavily last year are practically all gone, so that it is largely a question of vigor of trees whether the buds are killed or not.

Where the buds are killed those trees ought to be cut back severely, so a new top would be grown for another year.

It is quite remarkable how little is known by farmers in general about the care of fruit trees and with what persistence he tells of the crops they used to grow without any of this bothersome spraying. He cannot recognize that many of the birds that formerly kept the insects in check have disappeared, but some of these pests have been brought to this country from foreign lands and their native food plant was not brought along. Also the parasite that lived on the insect in its native country will not live in this country, so we have them to combat.

When we prune an old neglected tree and the farmer asks how long it takes and how much work we take out, he shakes his head and becomes quite discouraged, and we have to be particular to explain that we are doing the work that should have been distributed through many years. And after this thorough pruning the work for each succeeding year is comparatively insignificant.

The San Jose scale is not widely distributed in southern Ohio. Only in a few localities is it found. Wheat as a rule is looking well. Much riling is being done.

HARVEY DRUMM ON WAY OF LIVING

The April number of Health, a New York magazine devoted to Physical Culture and outdoor life, contains two articles by Harvey I. Drumm of Thornville, who is well known in Newark. One is on "Sleep" the other much shorter, "The Way of Living," which follows:

A man's life is not to be measured by the number of years he lives, but by the way he lives them. He who has a light heart, a clean mind and a perfect body, will live more in ten years than the person with a heavy heart, a clouded mind and a diseased body will live in twenty years. And no person can be light-hearted and clear-brained when suffering from any bodily affliction. Every man owes some duty to himself, and it would be considered the highest possible service in relieving physical suffering when in the clutches of annoying and distressing disease. No human being can possibly live a free, buoyant and natural life, as his defect is constantly with him to frustrate to darken, and to blight his enjoyment, and he cannot escape it. The foundation of all true living is a perfect body, and the first duty of every man or woman is to leave no stone unturned to get rid of whatever physical defects they may have. It is a duty first to themselves, then to those around them, and finally to their posterity. I have devoted a number of years of my life to the study of "The way of living."

It will cost you 25 cents to see the Junior Class play Thursday evening, but don't miss it. "Katherine and Petruccio." 1843

Mrs. J. L. McMahon proved a very entertaining hostess Tuesday evening at her home in Bowers avenue to the sixteen members of the Nemo club. The prizes for a highly spirited game of euchre were awarded, Mrs. Charles Schaller first, and Mrs. John Donahue second.

A dainty lunch was served at the close of the game, the hostess being assisted by Miss Lucille Callahan and Alice and Irene McMahon.

Mrs. Eliza Jackson is this afternoon entertaining the members of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club at her home in East Locust street. The progressive game has been provided for entertainment and the substitute guests are Mrs. E. S. Miller and Miss Clara Scott.

Miss Annette Besuden is this afternoon entertaining the members of her sewing club and a few friends at her home in Hudson avenue.

The Tuesday Bridge club held its first meeting since the inauguration of Lent on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Miller in Hudson avenue. Several tables of players participated in the club game and the trophies were awarded to Mrs. E. S. Wright and Miss Louise Hunter, while Mrs. Fred Wright received the guest's souvenir.

A dainty repast was served the members and following guests: Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. J. J. Carroll, Mrs. A. R. Pitzer, Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mrs. Robbins Hunter and Mrs. Walter Jamison of Mansfield.

St. Luke's Commandery, Knights Templar, will have its annual reunion at Assembly hall on next Wednesday.

Practical Housekeeping.

Saving Steps in the Kitchen.

A WELL-KNOWN lecturer on cookery, who manages an apartment house and restaurant where she caters to nearly a hundred guests every day, and who runs a summer hotel, where her guests number more than five hundred, says she is never tired. She is on her feet from six to eight hours every day in her kitchen and about her house. She is not a young woman. She has been a housekeeper more than forty years. And she weighs close to two hundred pounds. Most women of her weight and age would be dead tired at the end of the day if they did what she does. So there must be a reason for her freshness. There is. She saves her steps. And she saves her steps by planning her work and having things handy.

When her summer hotel was being built she stood on the ground where her kitchen was to be, and in imagination did her work. Then she told the builders how the kitchen was to be planned. This idea she carries into everything. She never takes an unnecessary step.

Not all housekeepers can have their kitchens built to suit them. But they can arrange their kitchens to suit themselves. And in this arrangement they can save themselves many unnecessary steps.

Before arranging a kitchen it would be wise to stand, as did this woman, and mentally go through the processes of cooking, dishwashing and other kitchen work, and then put the things necessary to this work near where it will be done.

The cooking knives and forks should be placed on a rack or bung near the range so that when they are wanted they can be reached instantly without running to a drawer and hunting them out. The cooking utensils should be arranged in the same handy fashion. A kitchen is a workshop, and it should be furnished as a workshop. A carpenter does not carefully put all his tools out of sight. He has a place for his things and keeps them in it, but they are handy to where he is working.

It will be claimed that cooking utensils arranged this way will get dusty. This is true, and for a modern kitchen a modern cleaner, such as some vacuum apparatus, should be used. This is not always possible, and if it is not, the cooking utensils can be carefully wiped before being used. This is less work than running to a cupboard, frequently a dark cupboard, or one under a dresser where the housekeeper must stoop for the pan or pot needed.

Not only should the kitchen be arranged so that everything is handy, but when any special operation is to be undertaken, such as making bread or pies or a stew, everything needed for the work should be collected before proceedings start. Think out what is wanted, if possible get it all at once, and put it where the work is to be done. Then, when the pie or bread or stew is half made, it will not be necessary to wipe the hands and run and get some forgotten ingredient, and in five minutes repeat the operation, and so on until a lot of time and energy have been thoughtlessly wasted.

Brains are needed in housekeeping if it is to be done properly. But if brains are used, housekeeping is no more tiresome than any other occupation, and not half so exacting as many will begin housekeeping in Dayton, where the groom is in business. Many friends join in best wishes.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the supper and dance given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armstrong in Valandigham street. The following were among the guests: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hampshire, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Grubbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shumaker, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. William McLain, Mr. and Mrs. Park Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John Prior, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter, Mrs. Glau-singer, Mrs. Mary White, Mrs. B. Burt, Mrs. W. H. Burrell, Mrs. J. Brushew, Mrs. Fred Youse, Mrs. E. Wilson, Mr. D. Weakly, Mr. E. Chambers, Mrs. W. E. Tracy, Misses Hallie Wiley, Helen Peck, Grace Clark, Blanch Stack and Katherine Wiley.

Thursday Afternoon Sewing club that was to have met on the club day of this week, will be postponed for two weeks, when it will meet with Mrs. Hauk in Granville street.

Beefsteak en Casserole. Take a large porterhouse steak two inches thick, wipe and broil for two minutes on each side. Transfer it to a casserole (a covered earthen stewpan), add one pint of Spanish sauce, one cupful of button onions which have been lightly browned in a little butter, and four tablespoonfuls of Madeira. Cover and place in a moderate oven for one hour and a quarter. Add one cupful of potato balls which have been browned in deep fat and send to the table in the casserole.

Spanish Sauce. Cook together for ten minutes two tablespoonfuls of butter, two of chopped onions, two of chopped carrot, and one of chopped celery. Add two tablespoonfuls of flour and cook until a rich brown; add one pint of consommé, or rich, clear stock and stir until thick and smooth. Add one tablespoonful of chopped ham, one bay leaf, two cloves, a sprig of parsley, a blade of mace and salt and pepper to season. Simmer very slowly for two hours; add one tablespoonful of gelatine which has been soaked in one-quarter of a cupful of consommé until soft, simmer for fifteen minutes longer, skim and strain.

Have You Tried Morse's Nerve Tonic?

Remember It Is Guaranteed By T. J. Evans the Local Druggist.

Trouble, overwork, over-indulgence and worry may do us to enjoy life as we should. Our worn out nerves make us irritable, blue and disagreeable—we can't sleep, we have no appetite—the world seems against us.

This condition need not exist twenty-four hours longer if you have left sufficient energy to visit the drug store of T. J. Evans. There you can get a 50-cent or dollar bottle of Morse's Glycerole (compounded by Hazen Morse, M. C., Rochelle, N. Y., and Bridgeport, Conn.) which is guaranteed to calm and strengthen your nerves, tone up your stomach, produce restful sleep and invigorate you generally. It is absolutely harmless—contains no opiates or habit forming drugs of any kind. Same preparation under other names has been prescribed by physicians for 25 years with remarkable success.

You take no risk whatever. If you are not benefited or cured after taking the first bottle, Morse's Glycerole, T. J. Evans or any druggist you may buy from will return your money cheerfully.

OHIO MEMBERS AGREE ON JOBS

Washington, April 19.—Some semblance of harmony among the Ohio Democrats was manifested after a meeting held yesterday. It was announced that Representatives Ashbrook, Goeke, Ansberry Whitacre and others had agreed to surrender sufficient patronage to give two Ohioans fairly good jobs in the house.

Robert Gordon of St. Marys, who was defeated for postmaster of the house by members of the Ohio delegation, is slated for the superintendency of the document room at $2500 annually. William Hempstead, clerk to Representative Denver of the Sixth district, was endorsed for enrolling clerk, a place which pays $3900.

About all the other Ohioans will get in the way of patronage will be positions as janitors elevator men, etc.

The three Ohioans who have committee chairmanships will have the filling of the vacancies in their committee staffs.

LINE UP FOR THE OPENER

The indications are that if Thursday is a clear day there will be a record breaking crowd at Wehrle Park to witness the opening of the baseball season in Newark, when Newark will contest with Portsmouth, the latter team being the champions of last season.

The line-up for Newark will be as follows: Baggett, 1b; Newham, ss; Brown, cf; Walker, 1b; Vosburg, rf; Harrold, 3b; Prysock, 2b; McConnell, c. The pitchers that are in the best condition will be used.

Manager Newham said that the following named players had been released today:

Charles Richard, Tiffin, outfielder; E. Dotterwich, Buffalo, catcher; Wm. Jeth, Sugar Creek, catcher; Carl Hinte, Saginaw, Mich., outfielder. Mr. Newham said that he would place Mr. Hinte with another team as he considered him a very good man. William Conley, who played third base for Newark last year, was also released.

THE MONODIET

about which we hear so much, does not mean living on one food exclusively, but on foods that harmonize. Certain elements of nutrition are essential to health, but all these elements cannot be obtained from any one food—hence the necessity of a variety.

Deficiency of one or more of these elements, such as iron, for instance, in the blood, will cause anaemia, run-down condition and sleeplessness.

If you are one of the unfortunate who have drifted into this state, change your diet, eat foods that are rich in the mineral elements of nutrition, and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, which contains no oil and supplies iron to the blood in the most easily assimilated form.

Vinol creates an appetite, aids digestion, makes pure, healthy blood. In this natural manner it builds up the run-down, weak and debilitated. If you don't find this to be a fact we will return your money if you will try a bottle. F. D. Hall, druggist.

HIGH TARIFF PROTECTIVE LEAGUE FIGHTING AGAINST RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT

Engaged in Procuring Protests from Farmers by Postal Cards, Traveling Emissaries and Other Means to Brow Beat the Present Special Session That Were Not Resorted to When the Late Republican House Was in Session.

The high tariff wall Protective League, the Stand-patters, are making a desperate effort to line up the farmers against the Canadian Reciprocity agreement, which the Democrats in Congress are supporting with practical unanimity. The deceptive tactics of the Stand-patters is to make farmers believe that the passage of the Canadian Reciprocity measure will lower the price of farm products. The Protective League has been engaged for weeks in sending out postal card protests to farmers and men have been employed to personally visit farmers for the purpose of getting their signatures to protests against the passage of the Reciprocity Agreement. Of course, the Protective League, having absorbed the bulk of the wealth of the country through high tariff robbery, has millions to pay the cost of this expenditure and is paying the price.

There could be no more absurd assertion than that farmers will be losers by Canadian Reciprocity.
At a meeting of farmers one of these stand-pat emissaries made loud claim that Reciprocity would cut down the price of hogs. Yet Canada was never known to produce a good field of corn and never can, in consequence of its northern latitude. Neither is there any other farm product in which Canada can come in competition with the United States. The price of wheat is regulated the same way in Canada that it is in our own country. The price of wheat is regulated in Liverpool and other European trade centers. Canadian wheat is shipped direct to Liverpool the year round and Reciprocity with this country will have no effect whatever on the price of the United States product. This has been proven time and again at every public discussion of the tariff question for years.

The trick of the high wall tariff Protective League, the Stand-patters, in putting a tariff on wheat and other farm products never had any other object than to keep down the opposition of American farmers to the high tariff duties on every article of manufacture that these farmers consume.

No such effort was made by the High Protective League to induce farmers to join in the opposition to Canadian Reciprocity at the last session of Congress, when there was a Republican majority. Why has the League, therefore, resorted to such desperate efforts to line up the farmers against the Democratic Congress for doing exactly what President Taft wanted done at the last Congress and for which he called the present special session?

The resources and expedients of the Protective Tariff League are without limit and its policy for a generation has been robbery of the American consumer without scruple. That is why the beneficiaries of the Protective League today possesses the bulk of the country's wealth.
They are resorting to means to intimidate the present Democratic Congress that they did not dare attempt to do at the last session of the Republican Congress.

If Reciprocity is established with Canada, time will prove its BENEFIT TO THE FARMER, instead of any injury. In the matter of free lumber alone a great benefit will come to the farmer and every American consumer.

HOUSE PLANS WORK METHODS

Adjustments Will Be Taken as Senate Talks.
DEADLOCK SEEMS PROBABLE.

Senate Likely to Adopt Amendment to Measure Providing For Direct Election of Senators—This Amendment Will Give Federal Government Control of Elections.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, April 19.—(Special.)— There is likely to be a deadlock between the senate and house over the proposed amendment to the constitution for the election of senators by direct vote of the people. The house has passed the Borah resolution or a resolution worded the same as the Borah resolution.

The senate is almost sure to add the Sutherland amendment. It seems certain that the majority party in the house will refuse to accept the amendment resolution, in which event there will be a conference and perhaps a deadlock between the two houses.

While the Democrats in the senate generally opposed the Sutherland amendment, which looked to the supervision of elections by the federal government or at least left the control in the federal government if it wished to exercise it, many of them waived their opposition and voted for it because they wanted to have the resolution adopted if it did not altogether suit them. That situation may arise in the house rather than to have the resolution fail.

Automatic Adjustments.
After the house clears up the program which the majority outlined it is proposed to arrange for a series of automatic adjustments by which the house will meet twice a week and adjust immediately, transacting no business. This will allow members to return home while the senate is debating the various bills which the house has passed. If the senate takes as much time as usual to pass the different measures it will mean quite a long period of rest for the house.

Nearly every man in congress hopes for a short session, but very few see the end much before July. It is quite well understood that the Democrats do not believe that the Republican senate will pass tariff bills.

"Of course we will stay right here and pass the bills," said Chairman Underwood. "If the senate wants to take up our bills and pass them we will stay here all summer, but if there is no disposition to consider them after a reasonable time then we will take up the matter of adjournment."

Confidence in Carter.
Soon after ex-Senator Carter landed his job as an American boundary commissioner Senator Brandegee of Connecticut uttered this tribute of praise for the Montana man: "Trust Tom to land on his feet every time. He's the smoothest article we ever had in the senate. If he was dropped from a balloon 10,000 feet high he would land all right and with a proposition all worked out for rearranging and running the universe to meet the new method of navigating the air."

Makes People Think.
A report of a consul in Hull, England, says that municipal ownership of the street car system is a success.
In ten years $700,000 has been received over and above operating expenses, which has lessened taxation. The fare is 2 cents and in the morning hours 1 cent.

There are two cities in Canada
where there are no taxes, as the public utilities pay the expenses of the city government. Such things cause a great many people to do serious thinking on the subject of municipal ownership. The publication of such facts in government reports gives them a wide circulation.

Plenty of Buildings.
If Congressman Austin of Tennessee could have his way the whole country would be well supplied with public buildings. He has introduced a bill locating a building at every county seat.
They would not cost as much as the Panama canal, but would push it pretty hard as a matter of public expenditure. Just what he would do in regard to many places where there is nothing at the county seat save the courthouse is not explained in the bill.

Frank Clark, Economist.
Congressman Clark of Florida has gone way past the other Democrats in the matter of economy. He has proposed the abolition of many committees overlooked by the ways and means committee and also many positions which are really of little use in conducting the business of the house.

Clark was within reaching distance of the chairmanship of the committee on merchant marine, being the ranking member, but was not given the place. He now is doing a little "insuring" from time to time. But there must be something vital to an insur-
er movement to make it a success or even formidable.

Southern Accent Heard.
These are the days that the southern accent is heard about the house of representatives. Many of the new employees are from the southland and there are quite a number around from that section who would like to connect with the payroll.

UNCLE WALT
The Fast Philosopher.
My friend the preacher tells a tale about a man who lived in Uz. "The ills he knew would make you pale;
misfortunes round him used to buzz," so says my friend the preacher man, who shudders as he goes ahead; "he had big boils upon his can, and all his cows and hogs were dead. The way he suffered was a sin, and oft he wished he was on ice, and bora came up to rub it in,
by handing him some good advice.
You snort around and kick and wail when little things seem out of plumb, yet this man's patience didn't tail when all the world was on the
bum. He sat around his ruined home, and put fresh flaxseed on his boils,
or scraped them with a currycomb,
or painted them with healing oils;
he lay upon his humble couch and watched misfortunes come like rain;
and yet he never was a grouch; he didn't cuss things or complain. "O man," my friend the preacher cries,
"it makes me tired to hear you whine." It does, did not my blooming eyes, when all the world is gay and fine?" "That chap in Uz," I humbly say, "you think the most ill used of men, and yet he was a lucky jay—he never used a fountain pen."

PARISIAN SALES
Nothing for the Hair is So Good as Parisian Sage.
Evans' Drug Store sells it on the money back plan, so you take no risk.
"I can truthfully say that Parisian Sage is the best dandruff cure I have ever used, and can cheerfully recommend it for dandruff or falling hair. It is an elegant hair dressing."
Mrs. J. W. Smith, 403 East Main St., Durham, N. C., 1910.
"Parisian Sage is the best hair tonic and scalp cleaner I have ever used. It also promotes the growth of hair and makes it soft and glossy."
Mrs. George E. Alexander, 222 North Wayne St., St. Mary's, Ohio, 1910.
"My hair was falling out badly; I used one bottle of Parisian Sage,
which gave great relief to the falling hair and itching scalp, and the second bottle cured it entirely. I use it once in a while to keep my hair in good health."—Minnie J. Eisenhard,

FACTS ABOUT RED
CEDAR FOR PRUDENT
HOUSE BUILDERS.
Since olden times the beauty, magnificence and longevity of the cedar tree has been echoed in verse and prose. The cedar tree is often mentioned in the Bible. King Solomon's Temple was built with cedar timber because of its excellence. The cedar tree is referred to in the Old Testament as the emblem of prosperity, strength and stability. Only a few groves of the celebrated Cedars of Lebanon remain, some trees of which are thought to be 2000 years old.
The Arabs of all creeds have a traditional veneration for and reverently refer to the cedar tree as their saints. Oil of cedar distilled from cedar wood, together with other ingredients, was used by the ancients for embalming the dead.
The Ark of the Covenant of the Hebrews was made of cedar. Pliny, the great Roman orator and philosopher, describes cedar wood as everlasting, and says that for this reason it was used for making images of heaven gods.
With an eye to quality and durability, home builders everywhere are now calling for red cedar lumber in preference to other woods of rapid decay; and in order to meet this growing demand the undersigned is now prepared to furnish red cedar lumber for house siding, cornice, shingles also in fence pickets posts, etc., as cheap as other wood of inferior quality.

FOR CATARRH

Indifference to the enemy the public has lost sight of when applied to the of recovery of health. Practically every case of consumption might have been cured if hope had been maintained and proper treatment had been resorted to at the first symptom of the disease. Until the advanced stage is reached, consumption is curable. Catarrh is responsible, we believe, for many cases of consumption. It is about catarrh we want to talk to you today, incidentally consumption, since the two are so closely allied.

We have a medicine made from a reception of one of the most successful catarrh specialists known. We have it positively without an equal.
We are so satisfied that we are right that we will supply the medicine free in every instance where it is used according to directions for a reasonable length of time, should it fail to give satisfaction in every particular. We want every one to try this medicine at our risk. There is no condition attached to our offer. We put the user under no obligation to us whatever.

The medicine we want you to try is Rexall Muc-Tone. It is a catarrh remedy that goes direct to the seat of trouble. It is carried by the blood to every part of the system. It purifies and enriches the blood, tones up the mucous cells, and brings about a condition of health and strength which tends to prevent the germs of consumption from getting a start. Besides this, Rexall Muc-Tone is a powerful appetizer, digestive aid and flesh builder. Its good effects are often felt from the very first use. It is one of the largest and most satisfactory selling medicines at we have ever had anything to do with.

We know so much of the great good it has done that we personally back it up with our reputation and name, which fact should be ample guarantee to satisfy anybody. Rexall Muc-Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. We urge you to try it. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Newark only at our store—The Rexall Store, Hall's Drug Store, 10 North Side Square.

T. VERON WOMAN

(Special to Advocate.)
Veron, O., April 19.—Mrs. Wm.
Veron, aged 36, attempted to commit suicide Tuesday night at her home

time and her mind has been affected.
Mrs. Veron stabbed herself in the throat with a pair of scissors. The wound is not serious, and there is little danger of infection.

PEACE

deral outposts opened a long-range
fire, which fell short.
The column halted, seemingly taken surprise. Apparently the approaching rebels were unaware of the actual position in Agua Prieta and were uncertain whether the border town was held by friend or foe. Finally the column wheeled about and started to turn toward the mountains. Then it halted again. As it stopped this time they appeared at the mouth of the canyon from which the first column had emerged a second and long-column.
This second detachment moved swiftly across the desert and joined the first. There were apparently more than 500 men in the combined columns.
Cowboys who came into Agua Prieta about this time reported that the force was that of Juan Cabral, the insurrecto leader of Sonora, who different times in the last few weeks wrecked much havoc on the Federal forces. With him now, it was reported, was the insurgent commander, General Talamantes, the "Mexican Joan of Arc."

El Paso, Texas, April 19.—The worst fight to the rebels during the war was an evacuation of Agua Prieta after they had held it against the Federals. His view is taken by all military experts here today. The effect of this fight on the Juarez garrison is easily parent in the renewed confidence of the Federals there. There is a growing belief here that the rebels will again fail in their attacks on Juarez until it is too late.

Douglas, Ariz., April 19.—The presence of Colonel Cabral's force of rebels in the hills around Agua Prieta has soured the feeling of security which prevalled the federal occupation yesterday. The Federals fear Cabral more than any other rebel commander. His lack being of the do or die type and never asks nor gives quarter. His force is known to be formidable and ill equipped.

Washington, April 19.—Three Americans have been found among the rebel army at Agua Prieta according to dispatches to the state department today.

For the use of banks there has been invented an automatic camera which photographs checks in miniature on a roll of film at a rate of out 1000 an hour.

To obtain water power from rivers without interfering with navigation by the erection of dams, a Floridian has invented a large carrying a wheel driven by water passing through a flume in the craft.

ELECTRICAL
ENGINEERS
AT DENISON

Instructive Meeting Held by Society.
News of the Historic Old Village.

Granville, O., April 19.—There was a splendid attendance at the last regular meeting of the Engineering Society this week, the meeting being in charge of the section on electrical engineering.
An exceedingly interesting paper on "Electricity in Farming," was read by Mr. F. N. Moore. After giving a short historical account of its beginning in this field, he explained its uses, both in replacing animal power and in stimulating crops to further growth.
The item of economy, however, had been keeping its general use in check.
Prof. E. E. Lawton gave a talk on "Electrical Engineering as a Profession," which was very instructive. The next meeting of the society will be in charge of the section on "Bridges and Bridge Building."

The annual concert of the Denison Conservatory of Music will be held in Recital Hall on Wednesday evening, April 26. The orchestra has been working and rehearsing for several months under the direction of Mr.
Wood and a splendid entertainment is assured. Mr. Orlo See will play a solo, entitling them to free admission to the concert of orchestra numbers will play.

Quite a number of the youths, both boys and girls, in the vicinity of Granville, took the recent Boxwell examination held in Newark, and those passing the test will receive diplomas entitling them to admission to the high school. The "exam" was conducted by the board of school examiners of Licking county. The boards of education of the respective townships of the successful candidates are required by law to pay the tuition.
The test had all the earmarks of the old country school examinations. Announcement as to whether those taking the examination have passed or failed will be mailed as soon as the papers are examined. After commencement exercises have been held in the respective townships of those taking the test a commencement will be held in Newark for the successful contestants.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Lawrence of Urbana, O., who have been visiting relatives and friends here during the past week have returned home, having had a delightful visit.

Thomas Sunderland, a prominent business man of Cleveland, O., was here on business Tuesday.

On Tuesday evening a local contest was held in Recital Hall for the purpose of choosing Denison's representative in the Ohio Oratorical meeting of the Inter-collegiate Peace Association.
Harry L. Deibel, who delivered a most excellent oration on "The Law of Peace," was selected to represent Denison. This is a most signal honor and one that any of the students might be proud of. H. W. Nixon, whose subject was "America and the Peace Movement," was given second place,
and N. H. Carman on "The Panama Canal; a Factor in the World's Peace," was given third place. The winner will be the Ohio orator in the state contest for both the Ohio and Interstate contest. Seventy-five dollars will be the first prize and the second prize will be fifty dollars.

Preparations are being made for the second inter-collegiate debate of the year which will be held in Recital Hall in Granville on Friday evening, April 28. The debaters for Denison are Hunt, Eschman and Williams, and the contest promises to be an exceedingly warm one.

Mr. F. D. Carlock, ex-11, who was recently appointed to the position of a lieutenant in the regular army, has reported for duty at the Columbus barracks. This week he joins his regiment, the Thirtieth, at San Antonio, Texas, the post where Colonel John L.
Clem is stationed. The regiment has been ordered to the Philippines and

OSLER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Gray Hair Is First Sign of Age.
Harmless Remedy Restores to Natural Color.

Order isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the prizes. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race.

One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Sunday School Items.

The first full year of the Executive Line Standard plan is fast drawing to a close, and out of the 125 Sunday schools in the county, but three have proved up to the secretary's preparatory to receiving a front-line certificate at our county convention recognition service. The three front-line schools are in two front-line townships, Harrison and Washington.

"My brethren, these things ought not so to be," and I trust every school will push the front-line work at once.

In most cases, one front-line school will make the township front-line; the townships will make the county front-line and enough front-line counties will make the state front-line. Let's up and at it!

The county secretary will furnish front-line prove-up sheets to any school or any township which is ready for them. There are at least 6 townships and fully 12 schools that are falling short of the front-line goal in just one, or perhaps two, particulars. But they are going to reach their goal yet—see if they don't! If your school belongs to that list, get busy at once and be in at the finish with a front-line record. We must do it.

Cradle rolls in 50 per cent of schools.

Home departments in 20 per cent
of schools.

Teachers training in 10 per cent
of schools.

On the subject of the front-line work, the county secretary has a very interesting and valuable paper
on the subject of the front-line work. It is a most interesting and valuable paper. Let us hear from the award committee. Let us hear from you in time to get the honor of a front-line diploma.

Yours for a front-line record,

Daddy's Bedtime Story The Fairy and The Peasants

PEAASANTS are farmers, are they not, daddy?" asked Evelyn when daddy had told them the name of the story he was about to tell them.

"Yes, dear," said daddy. "The word is not used much in this country, and whenever you hear it in a story you may be sure that the story is one which came from Europe. In this story there are two peasants, a man and his wife. They were good people, but very poor. They had no children, and they lived in a little hut near the edge of a great forest into which the man went every day to cut firewood.

"One evening as he was returning home from his work he heard a bird crying. Looking around, he found that a little bird had been caught in the branch of a tree and had its little leg broken. Of course the peasant picked up the little creature and took it home, where he and his wife tended it and soon brought it back to health. One morning the bird said:

"I thank you, good people, for all you have done for me. You must know that I am not a real bird, but a fairy, compelled to take the shape of a bird for a certain time because I played a trick on the king of the fairies. He sentenced me to keep the shape of a bird until some one should be very kind to me. You have been so good that I may now become a fairy again. But if you ever need help very badly say 'Cheep, cheep.'" Then it flew away.

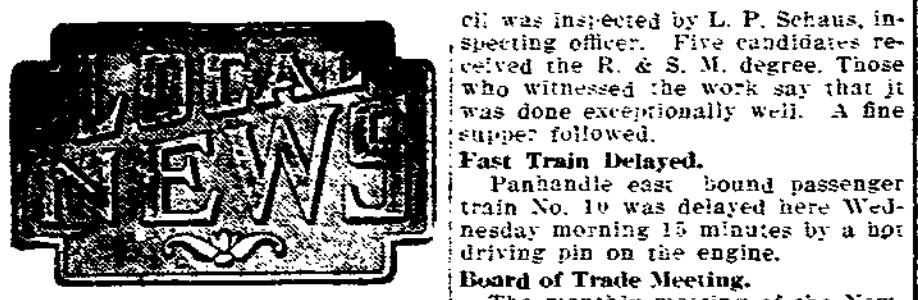

"Well, soon after there were very bad times in the land, and the peasant could get no work. Then he and his wife thought of the bird and said one evening, 'Cheep, cheep!'

"In a moment the most beautiful fairy, all dressed in blue and gold, stood before them. When she heard their wants she gave them a purse of gold and promised them more money whenever they should need it.

"But the peasant and his wife were not quite happy, for they had no children. They decided to ask the fairy to help them again, as she had been so good the first time. After they had called her and she had asked what they wanted she said to the man:

"Go to the forest and cut down a young tree which has leaves and tender branches on it. Then you and your wife go to the forest and make a nice soft cradle of the branches and line it with the leaves. Leave it there for a whole day. Then come back and carry it home without looking into it. When you come home open it and look inside."

"They did just as the fairy commanded and in the cradle found the loveliest little baby in the world."

Quarter Century Ago

(From Advocate, April 19, 1886)

Dr. W. O. Smith will deliver his celebrated lecture tonight in the Wallace Opera House on "Sudden Death."

Mr. J. B. Hain, agent for the Singer Sewing Machine company in this city, has resigned his position.

Signor Gigli Placido, Italian violinist, will be in the city tonight.

Mr. David Thomas, the well known miller, who has been ill is able to be out again.

Fifty Years Ago Today.

April 19, 1861.

Lincoln announced the blockade of all seaports from South Carolina to Texas, inclusive.

Collision in Baltimore between citizens and United States volunteers on the way from Philadelphia to Washington. The Sixth Massachusetts passed through the Twenty-seventh Pennsylvania turned back. After the collision the railway was obstructed above Baltimore to prevent the passage of troops.

reported as getting along nicely and the indications are that he will make a good recovery. Mr. Tower is a clerk employed in the store of Conner & Webb in Pataskala, and his many friends in Newark will be pleased to hear this good report of him.

Improving Residence.

George Kimball, division operator of the B. & O., is having a stone veranda added to his residence on Elmwood avenue, and when completed it will make a great improvement to the house.

Good Market Today.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was a splendid market Wednesday, which was attended by many buyers. Early vegetables of all kinds were in profusion and sold reasonable, while produce of all kinds was plentiful.

Good Building Outlook.

It is reported that the present season will be marked by a large amount of building. Some of the contractors are already busy, and many of them have work ahead that will keep them busy for some time. There seems to be a desire on the part of many to erect homes of their own instead of paying rent year after year.

Masons Journey to Granville.

The hundreds of Masons in Newark and elsewhere in Licking county will be interested in learning that plans for the coming celebration of Center Star Lodge of Masons of Granville are being formulated and that one of the most interesting celebrations ever held by the Masons in the county is promised. A special meeting of the lodge was held Tuesday night and much business was transacted pertaining to the celebration.

Will Locate in Virginia.

The many friends in Newark of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boyd will be sorry to learn that they are soon to leave Newark to make their home in Front Royal, Va., their former home. During their residence here they made many friends who, while regretting to lose them from their midst, still extend to them best wishes for success wherever they go.

Airmen at Point.

Visitors at Cedar Point the coming summer are likely to see many queer things in addition to those always in evidence on the beach, in the lake, on the board walk, in the pavilion, for Glenn H. Curtiss, Bud Mars and other noted aviators will maintain headquarters there during the summer, coming not later than June 15, and giving frequent exhibitions.

Newark Forging Ahead.

That Newark is forging ahead and that she is making a substantial growth notwithstanding the conditions she has had to contend with during the past year, is evidenced by the fact that many persons from different parts of the country are seeking a home here. An Advocate reporter, in conversation with one of the officials at the B. & O. freight office, was informed that scarcely a day passed but what they received from one to three car loads of household goods for delivery here. There could be no more convincing testimony that Newark is not standing still than this very fact.

PIMPLES CURED IN TEN DAYS

OR YOUR MONEY BACK.

Any one who has pimples, boils, blackheads, liver spots, open sores and all the other skin troubles that are caused by impure blood, know that it is because of impure blood. The circulation has become contaminated with matter that has clogged the blood, which is being forced out of the system through the pores of the skin. This condition cannot be cured unless you remove its cause. Bin-Ter Compound purifies the blood, strengthens the system and makes your skin healthy, thus restoring your complexion to its natural youthful appearance. If Bin-Ter doesn't cure you we will return your money.

Under the purifying and tonic effect of Bin-Ter Compound Tablets the system will be built up and your skin cleared, usually in about ten days. Sold and recommended by T. J. Evans, Send for Bin-Ter Laboratory, 12, E. Washington St., Chicago, Ill., for large sample.

The Fire All Smoke.

An alarm of fire sent in from the East End about 7:55 Tuesday night called the East End and Central departments to the residence of Mrs. Stewart, 118 Cedar street which has been occupied for some time by the family of William Bryson. When the firemen arrived on the scene they found a dense cloud of smoke issuing from the foundation of the house. On investigation they found that a quantity of old rags that had been stored in a hole in the stone foundation, to keep the cold out, had in some manner caught fire and was causing all the excitement. The fire was quickly extinguished, with no loss.

At 4:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Prosecutor Smythe stated that he could assure the court that if he would adjourn until 9 o'clock Wednesday, the state would close its case by noon of that day. As some witnesses were not present that the state wished to examine, this was done. The proceedings Tuesday afternoon, after the Advocate went to press, follow:

R. D. Williams, deputy fire marshal of Cleveland, was in Newark on last July 8th at the instance of the Law and Order League of that city. He was standing near Bolton's place in the morning, and heard some shooting in there. Pretty soon he saw several men, one bleeding, come out and go to the county jail, followed by a crowd in which he recognized Bolton. He also saw Bolton go to the Warden House and talk to the clerk, but admitted that Bolton was one of 500 who followed the detectives.

That afternoon he went again to Bolton's place and talking in there was a crowd of men who were swearing to get the dry detectives. He ordered a glass of beer and drank it, and as he saw the crowd was regarding him strongly, he left.

Q. Did you make a trip to Hot Springs, Ark., last July? asked Mr. Miller.

A. Yes, about the 16th.

Q. Did you receive information that Lewis Bolton was at the Springs?

This was objected to by the defense and overruled.

Q. Did you see Bolton?

A. No, sir.

The court then immediately sustained the former objection of the defense and ruled to strike out these answers as purely hearsay and in no way binding upon the defendant, and that counsel (Mr. Miller) should not make certain statements in the presence of the jury which might tend to give them an idea of some occurrence which could not be sustained by admissible evidence.

The same ruling was made on questions asked witness as to information he received of the whereabouts of defendant at French Lick Springs and afterward in Columbus. Bob O'Neal, a Columbus police officer, heard Bolton was in Delaware and arrested him there July 31. There was a man and a woman with him whom the witness did not know. Bolton said he was going to Detroit. He talked with Bolton on the road to Columbus and he told witness he had been to Magnetic Springs. A question as to whether Bolton registered at Magnetic Springs under his own name was objected to by the defense and sustained, as witness would have no knowledge of this unless told by the defendant.

Walter Collier, attorney, examined by Smythe: Saw Bolton in front of Bolton's place on July 8; heard him remark "they were drinking straight in there," meaning Bolton's place; knew Joe Bush; saw him come up to Bolton's place that evening, wink at some one and go into saloon with Bolton.

Cross-examined by Fitzgibbon: Witness was on his way to the jail to get that fellow (Detective Etherington) out of town; feared they would lynch the man; had read in the Advocate that Etherington was a strike-breaker; did not know who Bush winked at; was about 15 feet away from Bush when winking was done.

Samuel B. Fristoe, examined by Mr. Miller: Knows defendant, Bolton, by sight and knows where Bolton's place on Third street was; witness was down street and at Bolton's place the afternoon of July 8; as he was going in, some one remarked, "Go in old man; everything is free." (Objection by defense sustained.) Room was full; men drinking; everyone seemed to have a glass or a bottle; defendant did not get a drink; could not get up to the counter; looked around a little bit and left. No cross-examination.

Max Dold, examined by Smythe: Was near stone from which Watha made his speech; named some of the men around the stone. "Bloody Murder" Cleveland, Joe Bush and others; first saw the crowd at the stone; did not see them come; didn't hear Bush say anything then; heard Bush cursing Officer Cooper later; officer was in jail yard; next saw Bush "on the rail," pounding the jail door; saw Ed Owens helping on the rail; saw Clarence Timmons hammering on the jail door with a hammer or "young maul." No cross-examination.

Harry Stone, examined by Mr. Smythe: Was at the pole just before Etherington was pulled up; remained till after detective was pulled up; saw Lewis Bolton standing 60 or 70 feet distant; Bolton was standing there looking on, same as the rest; was in shirt sleeve.

Cross-examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon: There were 4000 or 5000 other people there looking on; saw Bolton about the time man was pulled up.

Norton Suter, examined by Mr. Miller: Am a resident of Newark; bookkeeper at First National Bank; saw dry detectives in front of bank about 9:30 a. m.; saw two men under arrest; saw defendant Bolton at county jail; Bolton said to man who had eye cut, "That's a pretty eye you have;" witness returned to bank; on way up street Bolton called one of the detectives "cockeye;" Bolton and 50 or 60 others went to the Warden; saw Bolton after dinner in Bolton's place of business; had gone in to look around; 50 or 60 persons were in there drinking; Bolton and Wilson behind the bar.

Nothing new in cross-examination by Mr. Fitzgibbon.

Raymond Matticks, examined by Mr. Smythe: After hanging Ray Patterson and I took a couple of girls home and then came back to town and went into Bolton's place; there was a crowd in the place and I saw Lewis Bolton there; there was one fellow sitting on the watering trough who said "There was no use battering down the jail doors if they had done what I told them to." Heard Bolton say, "All that I'm sorry for is about poor Bill Howard;" that was all I heard him say."

Cross-examined by Fitzgibbon: Bolton was not in the crowd near the watering trough when the man said "If they had gone through the cellar they would not have to batter down the doors." (A motion by defense to strike out that answer was sustained.) Don't know anyone in particular to whom Bolton made his remark about being sorry for poor Bill Howard; don't remember that he used the expression "All that he was sorry for," but maybe he said "Boys, I'm mighty sorry for poor Bill Howard."

Harold Brennan, examined by Mr. Miller: Saw bolt taking Etherington across the south side of the square; saw Bolton in front of the Hell building, right behind me; I was sitting in a machine; don't remember how Bolton was dressed; saw him going southeast from where I was in the direction of the pile from which Etherington was hanged; didn't see him again that night.

Cross-examined by Fitzgibbon: The crowd with Etherington when I saw them was on the south side about the Great Western alley. I was in front of the Hell building and Bolton was right behind my automobile; I saw him beckon to some one in the second or third story of the Doty House, and then he went southeast.

Witness identified on the map the Hull and Trust Buildings, with reference to the direction and distance from the pole.

One witness was called who was down town that night and said that defendant was pointed out to her, but that his back was turned. Defense objected to this, as the witness could not have recognized him; sustained.

Raymond Holl, examined by Mr. Miller: Was down town the night of the lynching on Third street, across from the Hull building; in company with another young man and two young women; saw Bolton motioning to some one; don't know who it was; the mob at this time was on the south side of the square; saw Bolton leave and did not see him again that night.

Cross-examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon as to relative direction and distance of Hull building and south side of square.

Rae Patterson, examined by Mr. Smythe: Went to Bolton's place after hanging; saw Bolton and crowd of people in front of watering trough; heard man of watering trough say that if mob had gone through cellar of jail, as he advised, it would have been much easier; heard Bolton say the only man he felt sorry for was poor old Bill Howard; his remark was directed to no one in particular.

Martin Ross, examined by Mr. Smythe: Was in Bolton's place between 6 and 7 o'clock the night of July 8th; saw a crowd in there, drinking; two or three had guns and some blackjacks; didn't hear anything said about these guns; didn't know any of the crowd.

Cross-examined by Waigant: Don't think I saw Bolton in the place when I was in there; the guns I saw were passed over the bar and put in a drawer; don't know man behind the bar to whom guns were passed.

T. H. (Ham) Stewart, examined by Smythe: "Was in Bolton's place about 7:30 or 8 o'clock the night of July 8th; crowd was in there drinking and talking; saw fellow there in his shirt sleeves pull a gun, and said he was a kid from the jungles, and shot two or three times. I got away from there did not again go back. I was not a police officer at that time."

Cross-examined by Fitzgibbon: Went into get a drink; paid for it and it was registered up; didn't see anybody giving away drinks; saw defendant there.

Mrs. W. A. Smith, examined by Mr. Miller: Live in building over the Franklin bank, three doors north of Bolton's place of business; was at photograph gallery on fourth floor when some disturbance occurred in Bolton's place in the morning; there was a crowd of people on the street in front of building; this may have been about 10:50 o'clock; four or five men running, apparently from Bolton's place; the rear, toward Fourth street; heard several shots fired; didn't know what trouble was; saw patrol wagon driving down Third street after dinner; crowd following; don't know Bolton; left home about 3 o'clock that afternoon and returned at 10 that night.

No cross-examination.

Mabel McManaway, examined by Mr. Miller: Lived in Zanesville the night of the lynching; was in Newark that evening and went to Bolton's saloon about 6 o'clock; went to an upstairs room; there was a bunch of fellows there shooting craps in room across from where I was sitting; I had one glass of beer there; part of the time Mr. Bolton served the drinks; stayed there until about 8:30, then went to Bergen's and came back to Bolton's after lynching; same man, Wharton, was with me; the girl who was with me earlier was still there, lying on a couch; I had some more drinks at this time, served by Bolton; stayed there until 3 o'clock the next morning, when I left. Mame McFarland was still lying on the couch.

Cross-examined by Mr. Fitzgibbon and nothing new brought out.

William Zipperer, examined by Mr. Smythe: Lived just east of the county jail when it was attacked last July; was on front steps when attack was made on jail; first saw Charles Hess coming from the lumber yard with a stick of timber on his shoulder; don't know if he was employed by Bolton at that time; don't know where he took this stick of timber; saw it next day in front of jail.

Cross-examined by Fitzgibbon: I was about my house all evening and all night; didn't see Lewis Bolton about the jail at any time.

E. C. Criss, D. J. Criss, Joshua Hull, Porter Hoodlett, proprietor of the Franklin Hotel; Frank Good, Joe Moser and D. J. Baird were examined, and told of the details which led up to the lynching. Nothing new was brought out in any of the testimony. Carl Motherspaw testified that he saw Bolton shortly after the hanging and hear him say to another man that "that was the damndest hardest day's work I have done and I will never do it again."

The crowd in attendance at the trial is the largest so far and the galleries open today for the first time, to accommodate the crowd.

The last 30 years have been a period of depression for the Norwegian farmer. His debts have increased, labor has become scarce and expensive on account of emigration, and the increased cost of living is felt upon the farm as in the city.

Occasionally you meet a woman who is almost as much afraid of her husband as she is of her cook.

FEED YOUR NERVES; THEY'RE HUNGRY

MEN AND WOMEN REBUILT AND MADE OVER BY NEW DISCOVERY.

Your Nerves Need Rebuilding.

Put new rich blood, full of life and health-giving qualities into that body of yours, and see the difference. An old and long-existing want has at last been filled. For centuries men of medicine have known that the very essence of life and strength lay in the cells of the blood. But until now there has never been anything within the reach of the multitude that would take those cells and rebuild them—giving them the strength they craved to throw off disease. You must depend upon the blood to give you health and especially to build up the nervous tissues. Cell Tissue Tonic is the newest discovery of the great specialist, Dr. C. A. Hoag, and is his greatest triumph. It will restore your vitality and self-reliance. After you commence taking Cell Tissue Tonic you will note the entire disappearance of nervousness and your sleep will be sound and refreshing.

It is especially adapted for all such troubles as Paleness and Weakness, Debilitation (nervous and run-down men and women), Stomach and Bowel trouble (in infants and adults), Hysteria, Insomnia (sleeplessness), Inflammation and Pains (rheumatism).

There is nothing else similar to Cell Tissue Tonic in either name, taste, or results—so remember what to ask for. Dr. Hoag's Cell Tissue Tonic. All druggists sell it for $1.00 or it will be sent direct with a charge of $2.00. Write for a dollar to Dr. C. A. Hoag Co., Suite 45, 25 W. Kinzie St., Chicago, Ill. Our "Home Doctor Book" is the best ever published. Contains instructions on care of sick and sick room as well as much valuable information, and is sent to anyone FREE upon request. Cell Tissue Tonic is for sale and recommended by Hall's Drug Store and A. F. Crayton & Co. in Newark.

PURITY

The eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Livingston was badly injured from being kicked by a horse his father was leading to water Sunday evening. It seems strange that pulling a man's leg should make him short.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Erle, Pa.—"I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless."

I went to three doctors and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It is worth its weight in gold.

R. D. No. 7, Erie, Pa. Mrs. J. P. EXDLICH.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it is free and always helpful.

JUNIOR PLAY AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

The juniors of the high school will on Thursday evening of this week give the customary junior play in the auditorium of the high school. The class this year, under the able instruction of Miss Ewalt will present "Katharine and Petruchio," from "The Taming of the Shrew."

The cast has been most carefully selected and the rehearsals have produced much real talent.

The play will be given in full costume and with complete scenic equipment.
